

Session title:

Flooded In A Flash – A disaster decades in the making

Session speakers:

Jonathan Gano-City of Des Moines

Session summary:

An overview of how Des Moines handled an 8” rainfall that deluged portions of the city and generated record-setting floodwaters, in many places that had never experienced flooding before. Includes a review of the event, lessons learned, and actions taken since the disaster.