Governor Branstad Issues Disaster Proclamation for Pocahontas County

DES MOINES – Governor Terry E. Branstad has issued a disaster emergency proclamation for Pocahontas County as a result of the tornadoes that passed through the county last night.

The Governor’s proclamation allows state resources to be utilized to respond to and recover from the effects of this storm. Resources will be used to help remove debris in and around the town of Varina.

Last night, Governor Branstad also issued a disaster proclamation for Monona County. Debris removal efforts continue there this evening. No fatalities or serious injuries have been reported as a result of this weekend’s severe weather.
