MISSOURI RIVER FLOODING

www.iowahomelandsecurity.org/disasters/disaster2011.html

DR-1998: May 25 - Continuing

- Counties: Fremont, Harrison, Mills, Monona, Pottawattamie, and Woodbury
- Federal Public Assistance – All six counties
- State Individual Assistance – All six counties

News and Updates:

- Gov. Branstad requests extended timeframe to appeal for Individual Assistance
Gov. Terry E. Branstad has requested an extension of the time period to appeal FEMA's decision to deny Individual Assistance to five Iowa counties impacted by Missouri River flooding.

On Aug. 4, 2011, Gov. Branstad received notification that FEMA had denied his request to make the Individual Assistance Program available to residents of Fremont, Harrison, Monona, Pottawattamie and Woodbury counties. The State of Iowa has 30 days to appeal FEMA's denial of the Individual Assistance Program. However, since the flood water will recede slowly, the Governor is asking FEMA for an extension of the appeal to Nov. 15, 2011, so it may include damages that surface beyond that 30-day time period.

The appeal of the decision by FEMA will be coordinated by the Iowa Homeland Security and Emergency Management Division, which will work closely with the local emergency management agencies to determine additional damages and impacts caused by the ongoing flooding.

The FEMA Individual Assistance Program is made available to homeowners, renters and businesses and can include grants and low-interest loans to help pay for temporary housing, home repairs and other disaster-related expenses not covered by insurance or other aid programs.

- Stay Aware, Be Prepared – Iowa Homeland Security and Emergency Management Division (HSEMD) reminds Iowans that flooding along the Missouri River is continuing, and river levels are projected to remain high for many more weeks. It is important that residents in threatened areas remain prepared in case conditions change. Keeping a bag packed with essential items and establishing a family evacuation plan will help Iowans be ready to evacuate if an order is given.
- DNR Provides Sand and Sandbag Disposal Information

- Gov. Branstad adds counties to request for Major Disaster Declaration for Public Assistance

Governor Branstad has added additional counties to an earlier request to President Obama to declare a Major Disaster for Public Assistance in four counties.

Governor Branstad is now asking that Clay and Dickinson counties be included in a request for a Major Disaster Declaration for Public Assistance for Benton, Marshall, Story and Tama counties. The Governor is making the request in response to the severe weather and windstorms that began on July 9 and continued through July 14. The windstorms caused widespread damage and resulted in large amounts of debris in the four counties.

A Presidential Major Disaster Declaration for Public Assistance puts into motion long-term federal recovery programs, some of which are matched by state programs, and designed to help public entities and select non-profits. Public Assistance funds may be used for emergency work and the repair or replacement of disaster-damaged facilities and may include debris removal, emergency protective measures, repair of damaged public property, loans needed by communities for essential government functions and grants for public schools. For more information, please visit www.governor.iowa.gov.

- Gov. Branstad requests Major Disaster Declaration for Dubuque and Jackson Counties

Governor Branstad has asked President Obama to declare a Major Disaster for Public Assistance for two Iowa counties. The two counties in the request are Dubuque and Jackson.

The Governor is making the request in response to the severe storms and torrential rains that impacted the area beginning July 27–29.
